

4th Annual Bing Crosby

Holiday Film Festival

Come celebrate the art and entertainment of Spokane's own Bing Crosby – and learn about the man and the historic theater where he got his show business start

Friday, December 4, 2009

The Bing Crosby Theater, Sprague and Lincoln in downtown Spokane Presented by the Advocates for the Bing Crosby Theater

The event is FREE (no tickets or reservations required). A $1 contribution is suggested to support the Advocates' projects and activities

(Prior to each film there will be a brief presentation about Bing Crosby, the theater that bears his name and the film being shown)

12 noon                      Holiday Inn (1942)
2:30 p.m.                    Road to Zanzibar (1941)
5 p.m.                         Talk and Book Signing by Carolyn Schneider, niece of Bing Crosby.

Her new book about her uncle, "Bing: On the Road to Elko," has just been published.

Evening Show

7 p.m.                         Reminiscences about his uncle by Walla Walla businessman Howard Crosby
7:30 p.m.                    White Christmas (1954)

The Advocates for the Bing Crosby Theater is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to maintaining the legacy of Bing Crosby and helping preserve the historic building where the world-famous entertainer began his show business career. The organization accepts donations to help continue its work, which includes presenting the annual Bing Crosby Holiday Film Festival free to the public each December.

For information, call (509) 467-0157, (509) 842-8664 or (509) 993-1732 – or e-mail wstimson2@aol.com